

Claire Dufek
Events and Youth Program Coordinator

Claire Dufek is a native of the Washington DC metro area, having graduated from the Holton-Arms School in Bethesda, Maryland. Claire comes to Leadership Arlington with a joint bachelor's degree in Hispanic Studies and Latin American Studies from Connecticut College. She is an accomplished swimmer, fluent in Spanish and is learning to speak Portuguese.

Claire's experience at Connecticut College allowed her to travel to Bolivia where she met with representatives from government and non-government organizations to discuss Bolivian policies and socio-economic structures. She also completed a summer internship in Honduras where she served as the personal interpreter for an American doctor and volunteers at a Honduran hospital and three rural health-clinics. While in Honduras, Claire also had the opportunity to teach English to Honduran adults and children. In her spare time, Claire likes to swim, read and travel.
