

Elizabeth J. Nohra
Chief Operations Officer

Elizabeth J. Nohra received her Bachelors degree in History from Youngstown State University and her Masters degree from the Cooperstown Graduate Program in Museum Studies. Upon graduation, Liz worked as Education-Exhibits Coordinator at the Cleveland Children's Museum. After moving back to Youngstown, Ohio in 2000, she became the full-time position of Assistant Director at the Mahoning Valley Historical Society and Arms Family Museum of Local History and was later named Manager of Education and External Relations.

On September 7, 2004, Liz became Executive Director of the Children's Museum of the Valley, a start-up, nonprofit museum in Youngstown. In 2005, she was named a "40 under 40" honoree by the Community Foundation of the Mahoning Valley and Mahoning Valley Professionals 20/30, for which she was a founding board member, at their inaugural event that recognized young leaders under the age of 40. Liz is a proud graduate of Leadership Mahoning Valley, class of 2005.

In September 2008, Liz moved to Northern Virginia and accepted a position at Leadership Fairfax Inc. as Events and Development Manager where she worked until becoming Chief Operating Officer at Leadership Arlington. Liz is resident of Arlington and resides in the Courthouse area.
